O.J.C. NO.4457 OF 2002

17.3.2017 Heard Sri S.Mohanty, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Sahu, learned Additional Standing Counsel for the O.P.1 and Sri Nayak, learned counsel for O.Ps.2 & 3.

This writ application has been filed with the following prayer :-

The petitioner, therefore, prays that Your lordships would graciously be leased to admit this petition, call for the records and after hearing the parties admit this case and issue Rule Nisi calling upon the Opps to show-cause as to why they have resorted to demolish the structures of the petitioner which has not been made to joint verification in accordance with the representation under Annexure-5

Entertaining the writ application, this Court by order dated 29.10.2002 while directing issue notice passed the interim order that status quo as on that date would be maintained till 26.11.2002 and this order has been allowed to continue till now. This writ application was filed in the year 2002 and no such action involving demolition of the structure of the petitioner has been taken in the meantime.

Under the circumstance, this writ application stands disposed of with direction that in the event, the O.Ps.2 & 3 are desirous to demolish the structure of the petitioner, if any, the same may take effect following due process of law by giving opportunity of objection to the petitioner.

Issue urgent certified copy.
